

Fox 29's Bob Kelly is coming to Chester County, PA! He'll be broadcasting live on Thursday, September 12, from 4:00 – 10:00 am at September Farm, 5287 Horseshoe Pike, as part of his "Town Takeover."

In past town visits, students, athletes, officers, firefighters, and first responders, pay the Fox 29 crew a visit. In a Town Takeover, the crew sets up at one location and invites various community groups to showcase what is special and unique about the area. The goal is to make it look like a pep rally with as many people as possible – the more the merrier!

Fox 29 asks each interested party to bring a group of supporters and visual aids that can serve as conversation starters to help Bob find them in the crowd. For example, a baseball team should wear their uniform and bring a trophy if they have it. A baker would bring a platter of their goods to taste and show etc.

Interested individuals and/or groups should contact tracy.schmid@foxtv.com directly to get on the list. You must include a contact phone number. Arrival would be 15 minutes ahead of the chosen hour and must stay for at least one hour. If you don't communicate with Tracy, you will not be on the list provided to Bob Kelly.

Be sure to tune on September 12 to see Honey Brook showcased on Fox 29!
